All the Looks of Stickley

For many Americans, the Stickley name is synonymous with Mission furniture, and rightly so. But many other styles, such as Leopold Stickley's much-loved Cherry Valley colonial furniture, have played an essential role in the success of L. & J.G. Stickley throughout its history. While Mission remains the brand's beloved foundation, there is even more to Stickley style than many customers realize, from its traditional beginnings to today's thoroughly modern looks.

Stickley's complete casegoods offering is as stylistically varied and dynamic as it has ever been. Yet what sets every Stickley collection apart is the same commitment to honest materials and unparalleled craftsmanship that is our hallmark. Stickley furniture of every style is built to last a lifetime.

Curated design, time-honored craft
The qualities that set Stickley apart

- Intelligent design – For 120 years, we’ve known how to make furniture beautiful while continually improving its quality and functionality.
- Superior craftsmanship – Our time-tested techniques and gifted artisans guarantee every piece’s strength and longevity.
- Honest materials – Only the finest premium hardwoods, stone tops, hardware, and upholstery fabrics go into our product.
- Hand-applied finishes – The clarity of our exclusive finishes allows the beauty of the wood’s grain to shine through.
- Sustainable manufacturing – Our woods are sourced from FSC-approved timberlands and used with minimal waste. And nothing is more sustainable than furniture built to last a lifetime.
- Family-owned – From the Stickleys to the Audis, the company has remained in the hands of families committed to its excellence.
- Community-driven – When you buy Stickley, you support a local business that actively gives back to the communities it operates in.
